WHERE MILLIONS ARE MADE.

Interesting Letter That May Mean Much to Residents of Barre.

Probably there is not a reader of The Times who has not heard of the fortunes made in the Beaumont oil fields. While the tales of fortunes quickly made are interesting, they are really not half as valuable to our readers as the following letter from L. K. Preston, president of the Casswell-Preston Drug Company of Beaumont, one of the largest wholesale and retail houses in Texas.

Mr. Preston writes: "Enclosed you will find a letter that came to us unsolicited from J. C. Reeves, 770 Pearl Street. I have known Mr. Reeves for several years. He is a reliable man and very happy over his fortune. 'About four years ago,' writes Mr. Reeves, 'and about three or four months ago my left ear became almost as hard as fact. I was so bad that people had to shout at me to make me hear. I had about given up in despair all hopes of ever recovering my hearing when I saw that you recommended Hyomei. I used two bottles and can now hear my watch tick with either ear and my hearing is now all right. This deafness must have been caused from catarrh, for it is now cured. Hyomei certainly does what you claim for it.'

Hyomei has made many cures of catarrh, and, in combination with Hyomei balm, of catarrhal deafness in Barre and nearby towns. Rickett & Wells give their personal guarantee to refund the money should it not give quick relief. The complete Hyomei outfit costs but one dollar, while extra bottles can be obtained for fifty cents.

"When Women Love."

The big melodrama of the season is "When Women Love," which is to be presented here Saturday. It is two years ago since William W. Lapoint of this city wrote the play for Spitz & Nathanson, owners of the Empire Theatre, Providence, R. I. There are three companies playing this great success. It has been played in New York, Boston, Chicago, Washington, Detroit and many other big cities. The phenomenal success of "When Women Love" has brought reputation to its author, William W. Lapoint, of this city, and he is at work on two more scenic plays for the present managers of "When Women Love."

Tickets for the course of lectures and concerts by the Barre Entertainment Association can be obtained at E. A. Drown's. The first entertainment is by Leland T. Powers who comes on Nov. 7th.
